District Girl Wed April 14

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Wang Lutheran Church April 14, when Marlene Ann Ashmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ashmore of Wetaskiwin became the bride of Karl Ludwig Buchner, also of Wetaskiwin. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Buchner of Wetaskiwin, and the bride is a former Vulcan district resident.

Pastor S. A. Schultz officiated at the ceremony. Gracing the altar was a bouquet of white Easter lilies. The pews were decorated with yellow daffodils with mauve ribbons. Mona Van Der Brink played the wedding music and a solo was presented by Mrs. Sally Biederman during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor length gown of white taffeta with lily point sleeves. Her skirt was full with a bow and train at the back. Her veil was held in place with a rhinestone and pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.

Attending the bride were Irene Ashmore, sister of the bride, and Janet Buchner, sister of the groom. Both girls wore yellow organza dresses with white accessories. They carried bouquets of white carnations and mauve 'mums. Junior bridesmaids were Lynne Wilhart and Debra Ashmore, cousins of the bride. They wore mauve organza with white accessories and carried white carnations with yellow 'mums.

Art Reid of Jamaica, and Roger Parker of Wetaskiwin were best men. Ushers were Allen Ashmore and Robert Buchner.

At a reception held later in the Legion Hall, the parents of the bride and groom received guests from Portland, Oregon, Calgary, Fernie, B.C., Wainwright, Erickson, B.C., Edmonton, Leduc, and other points nearer Wetaskiwin.

Would you rather have your electric utilities collect

TAXES

... or pay them?

Last year Alberta's free enterprise electric utilities paid over six million dollars in federal taxes. Almost 50% of this came back to Alberta for roads, schools, hospitals and other services.

It is important to remember that although government-owned utilities do not pay federal taxes, someone has to pay them.

Wouldn't you rather have your electric utilities pay taxes? — while serving you at rates carefully controlled by the provincial government.

SNIDER — THURBER

To Reside At High River

A lovely spring wedding was solemnized at the High River United Church on April 19. Reverend Morse Johnson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Before an altar banked with ferns and yellow chrysanthemums Miss Judith Diane Thurber, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thurber of Blackie became the bride of Howard Snider, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snider of Aldersyde.

Mrs. Lorraine Moore played the wedding music. David Randle sang the Wedding Prayer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of bouffant organza and bodice of chantilly lace with lily point sleeves. The scalloped neckline was embroidered with mother-of-pearl sequins and seed pearls.

Four softly cascading bows emphasized the sweep train of the floor length skirt. Her tiered shoulder length veil misted from a terra of pearlized sequins and dew-drop pearls. She carried a white bible with an orchid and sweetheart roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a treasured gift from her parents.

Miss Faye Eamor, maid of honor, Miss Judy Leslie and Miss Pat Bird, bridesmaids, were dainty in matching sheaths of aqua taffeta and organza with headpieces and shoulder capes of matching organza. White accessories and bouquets of yellow carnations completed their ensemble.

The bride's mother chose a biege and turquoise lurex sheath set off with a clever pill lion hat with a metallic leaf sequined veil and beige accessories.

The groom's mother wore blue lace with beige accessories. Brian Rowland attended the groom. Donald Thurber, brother of the bride, and Warren Mundel were ushers.

The reception was held at the Memorial Centre, where Stewart Meadows acted as Master of Ceremonies. Jack Thurber, uncle of the bride, played a violin solo and later proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom responded. Brian Rowland proposed the toast to the bridesmaids. The guests included friends, neighbors and relatives from the district as well as from Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary and Claresholm.

Guests were invited to an open house at the home of the bride's parents after which a community wedding dance was held at the Mossleigh Hall.

The bride's going away costume was a turquoise knitted suit, yellow carnation corsage with black accessories.

After a honeymoon by car through the Okanagan Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Snider will reside in High River.

GREEN ACRES

CLARENCE ROTH, District Agriculturist

WILD OATS CAN BE CONTROLLED

Delayed seeding is one of the most effective methods of controlling wild oats. W. Lobay, Supervisor of Soils and Weed Control with the Alberta Department of Agriculture, reports that under normal field and growing conditions wild oats infestation has been substantially reduced when this method has been used over a period of years.

With delayed seeding, the soil should be tilled to a depth of less than four inches in the spring. This aerates the soil and promotes good wild oat germination.

Seeding should not be done until the first good crop of wild oats have been killed. In most areas of the province this is usually about the first week in June. Mr. Lobay recommends Olli and Gateway barley as suitable early maturing crops for delayed seeding. In some areas a good emergence of wild oats has occurred by May 15, in which case wheat may be sown fairly satisfactorily.

All grain crops should be seeded at a heavier rate than normal and a recommended fertilizer used, says Mr. Lobay. This is very important because it enables the crop to get a good start and to compete favourably with the wild oats.

Post-seeding cultivation is another method recommended for wild oat control. Delayed seeding is usually more effective but it is not always possible to sow an early maturing crop. With post-seeding, the rodweeder and the harrow can be used to good advantage for destroying wild oat plants after the crop has been sown.

Seeding should be done a little deeper than normal and cultivation started when the grain sprouts are about half an inch. Under normal conditions this stage of growth is usually reached four to eight days after the crop has been sown.

Mr. Lobay also pointed out that the two herbicides, Avadex and Carbyne, can greatly assist in our fight against the wild oat menace. These are powerful supplementary tools which have proved their worth and are being increasingly used in Western Canada.

If you can't profit by your mistakes, there really isn't much use in making them, is there?

Plans were made for the annual tea and bake sale to be held on June 8th, in the IOOF hall. It was noted that there is a shortage of dish towels at the hall and anyone having one or two of these at their homes are requested to bring them to the hall, or turn them over to Mrs. Jim Stier.

Sympathy is extended to the Bricker, Willoughby and McKeage families in the loss of their sister, Miss Vera Bricker who passed away on May 12th, at the age of 59. Funeral services were held the following Wednesday from High River United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton McDougall were visitors in Lethbridge during the week and Mr. McDougall attended a dealers' school in Claresholm on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Root and girls of Lomond were Sunday visitors at the McDougall home.

Guest speaker at the final meeting of the H-C group was Dr. W. Gibson of Okotoks who spoke on the medical profession. Some of the parents attended and all appreciated his informative talk. Lunch was served.

Miss Mary Jean Webb, Nursing Aid graduate, is now employed at the Holy Cross Hospital in Calgary.

Miss Collette Southgate spent the long weekend in Calgary visiting at the home of Mrs. C. Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Clingman and family travelled to Creston, B.C. for the weekend where they visited at the ranch of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Black Blizzards Once More

Again this spring reports of serious soil drifting and water erosion are reaching this office in increasing volume. It seems ironical that farmers could control soil erosion during the 30's with the comparatively crude implements available then, and cannot control it now with the improvement in farm equipment which has taken place in the past 30 years.

The necessary implements and the necessary information are available. The Agricultural Representatives and Soils Specialists in the three Prairie Provinces have the required information and are anxious to give advice and assistance.

Need For Food. With the world population increasing at an alarming rate, and with millions of people now underfed, can we let farmers destroy, through sheer carelessness the soils of Western Canada? Because it is sheer carelessness, as is proven time and again by neighboring farmers who are keeping their soils "at home" and keeping them productive.

Is Legislation the Answer? The Province of Alberta has recently passed legislation which makes it an offence for a farmer to allow erosion to take place on his farm. The new Act places the responsibility and authority for erosion control at the municipal or county level, as is the case with weed control in Alberta. This has worked well with weed control and it is hoped that it will be equally successful in erosion control. However, considerable supervision and assistance would seem necessary to implement the new Act successfully.

Few people are in favor of legislation to direct the operations of an individual on his own farm. However, in this situation, the failure of a farmer to properly care for the land temporarily under his control affects the whole nation. And something must be done to prevent the needless waste of our most valuable heritage. It is hoped that, if advice, persuasion, and co-operation with the delinquent farmer fails, the Alberta Government will take stringent measures to rectify the situation.

We will watch with interest the new approach to the erosion problem in Alberta, and hope sincerely that it will be effective.

Reid Hill W.I. Will Observe 50th Anniversary

The Mother's Day theme was used at the regular meeting of Reid Hill W.I. held Wednesday, May 8, at the home of Mrs. Percy Myers, with Mrs. Ray Harold as assisting hostess.

Members were happy to welcome back their president, Mrs. Clifford Love, who has been confined to hospital and her home for the past two months as the result of fracturing her leg. She conducted the meeting, assisted by secretary, Mrs. Jack Marshall. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. C. L. Kuykendall. The punctuality draw was won by Mrs. F. Schuler. Correspondence was light and dealt with the forthcoming District Conference to be held at Barons May 27, and the Provincial Convention in Edmonton June 4-6. Mrs. Earl Deal was named to attend the Barons conference as delegate from Reid Hill. Mrs. Kuykendall was chosen to represent the branch in Edmonton with Mrs. Deal agreeing to be alternate delegate. Resolutions to be presented at the convention came in for some discussion. The members did not favor the increase in dues to $2 but were agreeable to $1.50.

A committee was named to make arrangements and plan the menu for the serving of dinner by the branch, Saturday, June 29, the first day of the 50th Anniversary Celebrations.

Mrs. Marshall brought a picture that Reid Hill W.I. had received in 1916 of soldiers using wheel chairs to which they had contributed the sum of $300. This picture proved most interesting especially since the branch observes its golden jubilee this year. Plans are underway for decorating a float to observe this event in conjunction with the town's birthday festivities.

Mrs. E. G. McPherson presented an original and very interesting paper on agriculture and Mrs. John French a paper on handicraft, both of which were much enjoyed.

Fourteen members and two visitors answered roll call by naming a flower commencing with the first letter in their own names.

At the conclusion of the business session the meeting was turned over to the entertainment committee. Mrs. Kuykendall presented an interesting contest using the letters M-o-t-h-e-r, which was won by Mrs. Frieda McRoberts and Mrs. J. French. Another contest presented by Mrs. Sales required members to identify famous mothers and this was won also by Mrs. McRoberts, with Mrs. Henry coming second. Corsages of red and white carnations were presented to Mrs. Jack Marshall and Mrs. Peter McIntyre, who had been members for the longest time; to Mrs. F. Schuler for being the grandmother with the most grandchildren and also for having the newest grandchild; to Mrs. McIntyre for having the newest great grandchild; Mrs. E. Deal for being the shortest mother and Mrs. L. Henry for being the tallest.

To conclude a most enjoyable afternoon, a dainty lunch was served by the hostesses.

Persistent Problems in Home Laundering

Yellowing and graying of fabrics is still the most persistent laundry problem. Most frequent causes are:

1. Incomplete soil removal;
2. Redeposition of soil;
3. Abnormal water conditions.

A stubborn build up of redeposited soil and accumulation of oily soils cannot be completely removed. However, the repeated use of hot water, plenty of detergent, chlorine bleach and a non-precipitating water softener will help to renovate the fabric.

Where yellowing is caused by iron in the water supply, a filter system or a special iron exchange unit designed to take care of iron may be needed. In many cases, however, the use of adequate amounts of detergent in the wash period and a non-precipitating water conditioner in the rinse period will correct this problem. In this type of yellowing, chlorine bleach tends to aggravate the discoloration.

Contributing factors to these problems are:

1. Water Temperature—For maximum soil removal from durable, colorfast fabrics, water temperature at hot setting should be a minimum of 140 degrees F. The dinginess resulting from low water temperatures comes as a gradual build up over many weeks.
2. Poor Sorting—The temptation to throw in the one last item often is a laundry culprit. For optimum results, clothes should be sorted for colorfastness, degree of soil and fabric types.
3. Incorrect Use of Detergents—The ideal detergent solution is approximately 1/3 ounce (by weight) of detergent for every gallon of wash water. High sudsing and low sudsing are a source of confusion. For front loading washers and combinations low sudsing products are recommended in order to give proper concentration with excess suds.

Package instructions are helpful but not too accurate as the water capacity varies with washer types and sizes. Specific directions on detergent usage must come from the washer manufacturer's use and care book.

MISS LILLIAN WHITE MAY BRIDE-ELECT

Several functions, complimenting Miss Lillian White, a May bride-elect, were held recently. Lillian is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. White of the Vulcan West district.

On May 4, Mrs. J. Bauder of Calgary was hostess in honor of Miss White, when she entertained 18 guests at a miscellaneous shower.

On another occasion, Miss White was honored when Miss Mary Gyorkas gave her a bridal shower. There were 13 guests in attendance.

Miss White's colleagues of the London Life Ins. Co., Calgary

Branch, also feted her. Head office in London, Ont., sent her a cheque as a wedding gift.

Mrs. Norman Cadman, aunt of the bride, held a trousseau tea in her honor on May 11. Several of the local ladies attended including Mrs. Sam White, Mrs. Bruce White, Mrs. Norman Whitehead, Miss Deirdre Dennison, her mother Mrs. James T. White.

A shower was held for Miss Lillian White on Tuesday afternoon, May 14, at the home of Mrs. Deanna White. Some 25 ladies gathered to wish Lillian the very best in the future.

The entertainment consisted of the making of a bride's book with hints and advice providing many chuckles; a novel recipe was read by Mrs. Nellie Hutton, advising Lillian, "How to Cook a Husband;" Mrs. Kitty Smith won a "test your memory" contest.

A corsage was then pinned on Miss White by Nellie Hutton at which time Lillian was seated in front of a table laden with gaily wrapped gifts. Mrs. Jean Whitehead and Mrs. Dale Johnson assisted with the unwrapping. Lillian very ably thanked the ladies for the many lovely and useful gifts she received.

A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Nellie Hutton, Mrs. Ethel Mc-Masters, Mrs. Mona White and Mrs. Eileen Wylie.
